

WMS Lifecycle

Overview

WMS is a full cycle warehouse management system, with operations efficiency apps which runs on the aZaaS SilverCloud, aZaaS BPM and application that enables users to enjoy great benefits of WMS. aZaaS SilverCloud is a PaaS, IaaS as well as SaaS that run mainly on Windows Azure.

It can be deployed into SME or MNC of wide range of industries, with the technologies on the Windows Azure, it has the capability to scale and help business owner to operate more efficiently, reduce IT cost and also increase their productivity and efficiency.

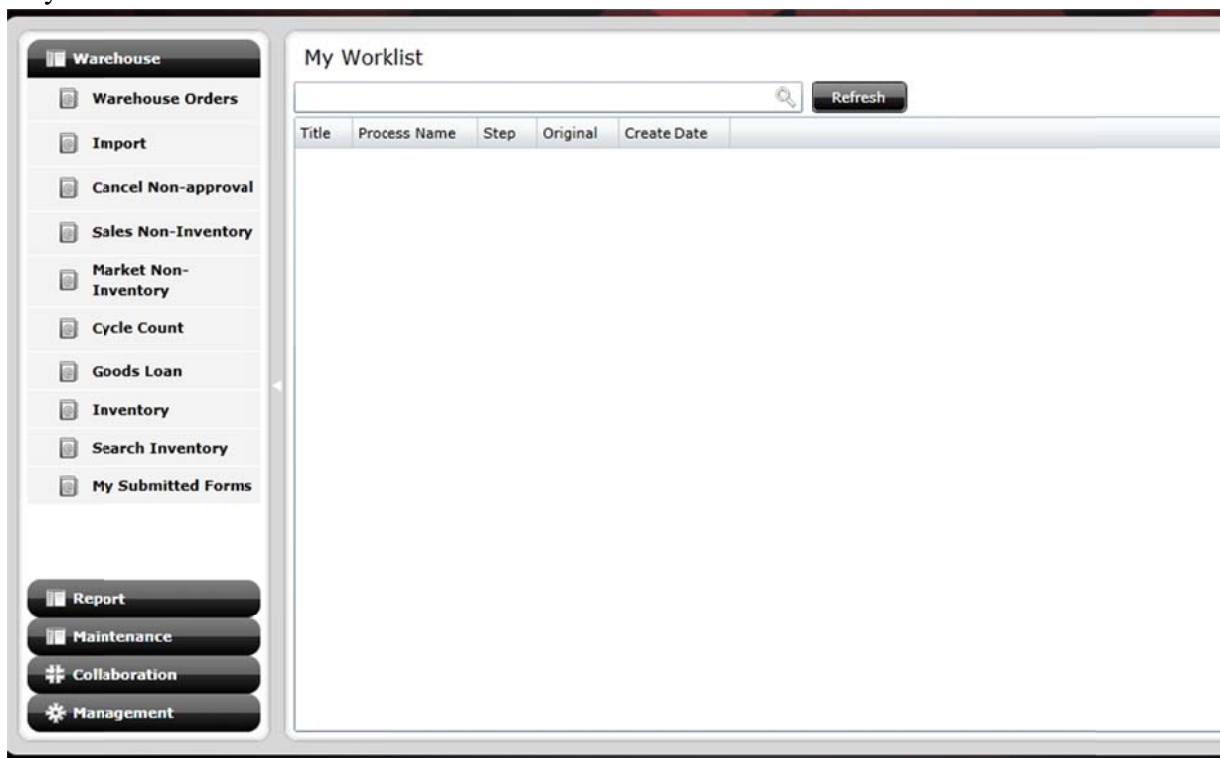

Feature List

- Import Purchasing Order
- Track, Manage and Allocate inventory by warehouse, location, rack, bin, carton and item
- Items transfer between outlets
- Good loan
- Customer return
- Import data from RFID scanner
- Flexible individual permission setting
- Approval and Warehouse Access control
- Stock Take
- Aging Report
- Cycle count inventory control
- Real Time and monthly, weekly report
- User/ Group Management
- My Worklist

Screenshots

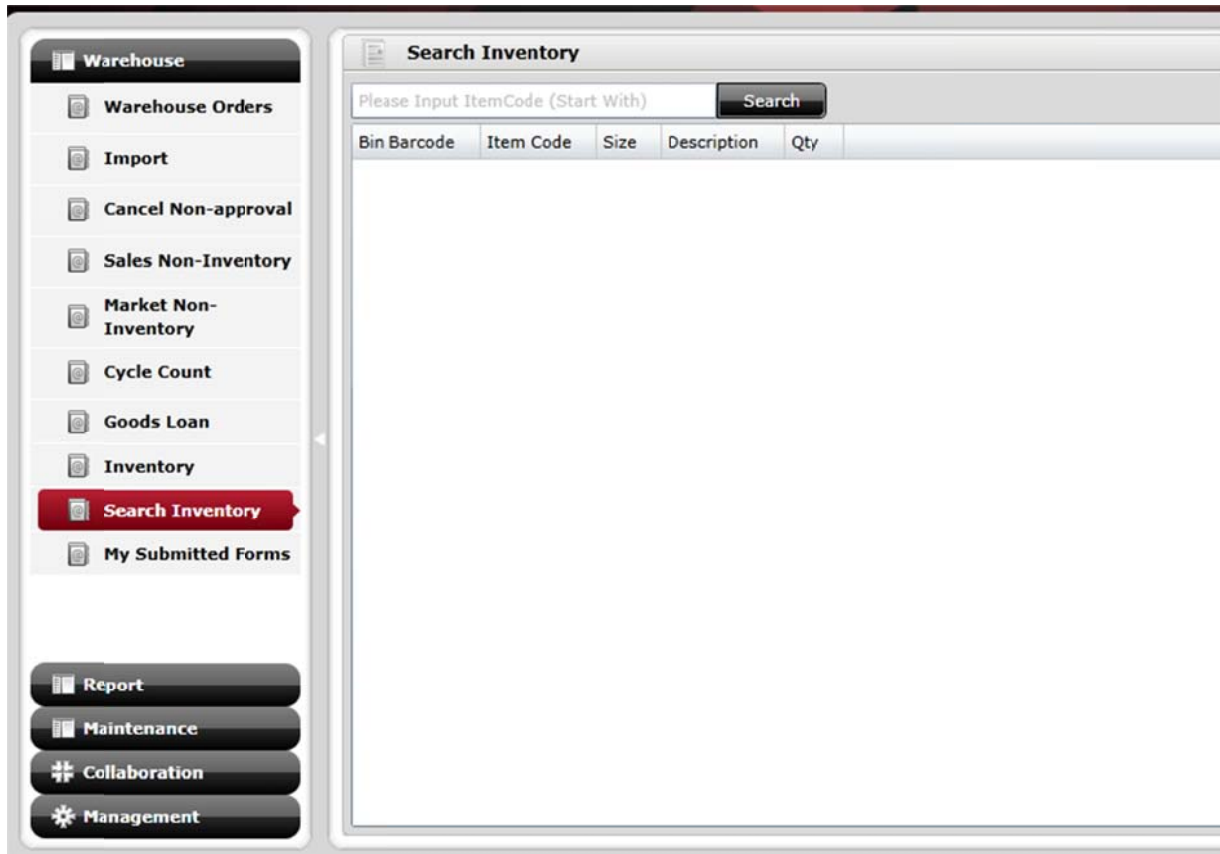

User friendly interface

WMS is designed in such a way that easy to pick up and master. A friendly user interface allows tasks to be completed easily and information to be retrieved conveniently. WMS is designed in a way that all the function is at the menu on the left side of the screen.

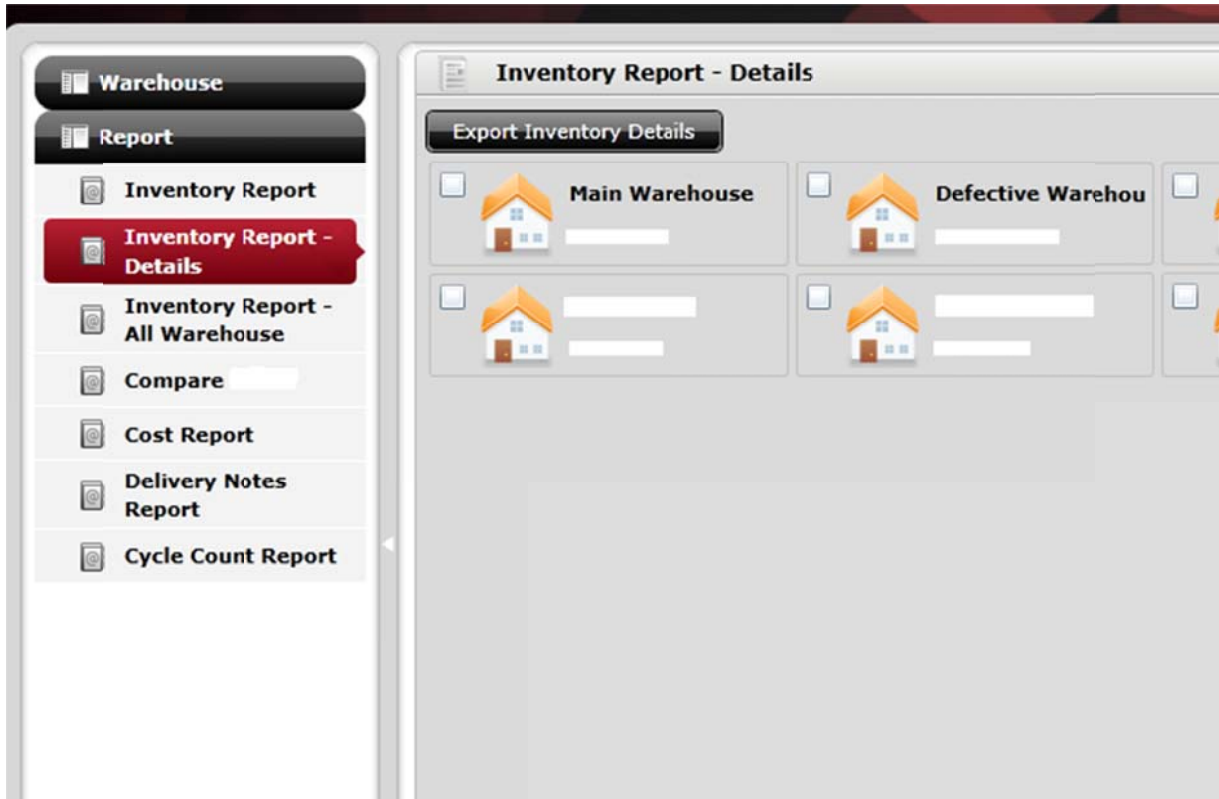

Inventory Searching and Tracking

Search and track data easily. Filtering and sorting allows you to quickly find what you want.

Reporting

Real time inventory report by warehouse allowed users to track inventory easier in a more effective way. Report is flexible and can be customized based on user's needs.

User Management

User management is designed in such a way that administrator is easy to manage and monitor. Assign user to group is as simple as drag and drop the users into the targeted group.

